The delegates of the 18th World Trade Union Congress visited and paid tribute to the memorial of the "Fosse Ardeatine Massacre", commemorating the 335 civilians and political prisoners who were executed by the Nazis troops during the Second World War on 24th March 1944 in Rome.

We commemorate all those who gave their lives defending the working class and its interest, struggling for a human-centered society free of exploitation. The World Federation of Trade Unions has been always on the side of the struggling peoples all over the world and intensifies its militant and class-oriented fight for the satisfaction of the contemporary needs of the ordinary people until the final victory of the liberation of the working class.

United we continue!
